I believe I would be an excellent fit for the Art & Culture Advisory Board as an alternate member due to my extensive background in the arts, education, and community engagement, which spans over a decade. My experience as a freelance writer and events director has equipped me with the skills to effectively promote and support artistic initiatives while fostering meaningful relationships among diverse stakeholders. I love Pembroke Pines and have made the decision to raise my family here; as my daughter grows older, I am excited to provide her and our community with more opportunities to engage with the arts. I am passionate about creating inclusive environments that uplift families and communities through artistic endeavors, and I aim to leverage my expertise in program management and marketing to enhance the board’s mission. Serving on this board aligns with my commitment to enrich our cultural landscape, ensuring that art remains accessible and impactful for all.
